

Fleet 71 Chebeague Island, Maine

Casco Bay, 2000

Secretary: Tom Rothschild

Fleet 71 is located on Chebeague Island, one of the larger islands in Casco Bay, near Portland, Maine, with a year-round population of 350 and a summer population of 2,000. The fleet is sponsored by the Chebeague Island Yacht Club, which has about 150 members and 17 Ensigns, many of which race regularly. This season's club champion, for the second year running, was Bob Earnest in ripple.

Our yacht club has an active sailing school, with three 12-foot Zeff sloops, six 420s, and three JY-15s, all used extensively during two two-week sessions in July and August.
